Exploring the Possibilities while Embracing the Tradition!

Wow, what a whirlwind is going on at Calico Cottage! I would like to say Thank-you to Susie, Deb and the crew at the shop. The vast knowledge each of you have is greatly appreciated as I take the reins of the shop. Thank you for the wonderful shop you have created. I continue to think about the traditions that have been established and I want to continue them. However, I will explore the possibilities of making the shop reflect me. It all starts with the logo, you will continue to see the traditional house, but now it is wrapped with a contemporary fun circle. The newsletter with timely topics, classes, sales and events will be coming to you monthly. Please take time to read and plan for January happenings at Calico Cottage. I am looking forward to working with each and every one of you as you continue your quilting journey.

It's a secret! But I am not very good with secret's! So.... it's a wrap! Shhhush!

An Illusions Sew Along - Block of the Month starting in February!

The Illusions Quilt, designed by Scott Flanagan, is bound to appeal to just about anyone who loves to sew beautiful designs with lovely fabric and color. The new 2022 release from Scott and Banyan Batiks is designed as a block-of-the-month type of project. So, whether you are an experienced quilter with several projects in the works or a new quilter just getting your toes wet, the pacing of the project may be just perfect for you.

Calico Cottage is all in on this project providing the kits, supplies, and support with a year-long sew along. Lorinda Bailey, our resident quilting expert will be our fearless leader and facilitator for the project. Our sew along will occur on the first Friday of each month at 10:00 am beginning February 1st. Lorinda will be sharing tips and covering the different options for the quilt.

Last week I talked to Lorinda about the Illusions Quilt and our upcoming sew along. Quilters, by their nature, are creative people and I asked her what drew her to this particular project. She said, "The blocks are so unique. The two row borders inside each block makes the pattern a Wow!

The kit and pattern are designed to be a queen spread or king topper (88" x 112"). There is also an option to divide the blocks and make two twins or a throw.

I asked Lorinda what skill level a quilter would need to successfully complete the quilt. She replied, "A comfortable beginner would enjoy this pattern. It was written with a variety of techniques and options for simpler piecing. It's always great to try something new, and it's only one block. Quilters, this quilt isn't hard, but it will take a little more time than just strip piecing."

With the right tools, 3 hours should be enough time to complete a block." She also recommends reading through the pattern before beginning. You can save time by being prepared.

The kit includes:

- Illusions Pattern
- Fabric to complete the Quilt Top
- Inner Border Fabric
- Outer Border and Binding Fabric.
- Exclusive Wide Backing Fabric
- The opportunity to join in a year-long Sew Along with the Calico Cottage Staff which includes a monthly Friday (first Friday) Sewing Day from 10 AM to 4 PM

Cost is a one-time registration fee of $25 non-refundable & a monthly fee of $26.50.

We look forward to sewing along with you in 2022!
